

Beatrice Kay Ferleman

December 29, 1949 - December 23, 2019

Beatrice K. Ferleman, 69, of Mason City, passed away surrounded by her family Monday, December 23, 2019 at MercyOne North Iowa in Mason City.

Per her wishes, cremation has been accorded and a Graveside service will be held in the spring.

The daughter of Victor and Beatrice (Fewins) Ferleman, Bea was one of two fraternal twins born on December 29th, 1949 in Mason City. She was a twin to Bethene Mae. They were the youngest of 10 siblings.

Bea grew up in the Mason City area. She attended School in the Mason City public school system and was a graduate of Mason City high School class of 1968. She then went on to further her education at Westmar University in LeMars Iowa. She lived in Spokane Washington for several years. While there she was a loving foster parent to special needs children. She then returned home to the Mason City area where she worked as an in-home caretaker in Kensett, Iowa and did some CNA work in an area nursing facility. After a relocation to Kansas she once again returned home and attended North Iowa area community college followed by an internship at handicap village in Clear Lake. She then returned to Kansas where she lived several years taking care of elderly nuns at Ursuline Sisters before retiring back in Mason City. In her golden years she made many new friends while living at Shalom Tower and Country Meadow Place. Bea enjoyed raising rabbits and raised many over the years. While living in Kansas she managed to even acquire a cow. She had many hobbies to include watching Star Trek, painting and playing chess, Domino's, bingo, cards and board games with friends and family. She was a member of Grace United Methodist Church Mason City. Those left to cherish her memory are two brothers Peter (Loy) Ferleman of Mason City and Thomas (Mary) Ferleman of Albert Lea Minnesota as well as many cousins nieces and nephews great and great great nieces and nephews. Loyal friends Brant and Rochelle Thomsen and family and a dear friend Sharon Trent.

Bea was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers John William (Billy) and David, five sisters Phyllis Hanson, two infant sisters Patricia and Wanda, Francis Russell Payne and twin sister Bethene Mae, several aunts, uncle's, nieces and nephews and her lifelong best friend Dixie McCoy.

Bea will be reunited with her twin at a private family graveside ceremony in the spring.

Hogan-Bremer-Moore Colonial Chapel. 126 3rd St. NE, Mason City, IA 50401. (641) 423-2372. ColonialChapels.com

Comments

---

“ Remembering and missing our dear friend Bea this morning Enjoying a cup of tea in a mug that she gave me one Christmas and looking at a picture of her:). Brings back so many memories! Miss you, Bea!

Rochelle Thomsen - January 16, 2020 at 09:37 AM

---

“ Kimberly Boyd lit a candle in memory of Beatrice Kay Ferleman

Kimberly Boyd - December 27, 2019 at 02:34 PM

“ So sorry to hear of Bea's passing - Bea was a kind soul and she will be missed!

Kimberly Boyd - December 27, 2019 at 02:32 PM

---

“ Sandy And Dale Berry lit a candle in memory of Beatrice Kay Ferleman

Sandy and Dale Berry - December 26, 2019 at 10:10 AM