

Betty JoAnn Ebaugh

October 22, 1935 - June 20, 2019

Betty JoAnn Ebaugh, 83, of Clear Lake, died Thursday, June 20, 2019, at MercyOne North Iowa Medical Center in Mason City.

Per Betty's wishes, her body has been cremated and no services are planned at this time.

Family suggests memorial contributions to MercyOne North Iowa Hospice in Mason City.

Betty was born October 22, 1935, the daughter of Henry and Kate (Meier) Ahart in Lockeford, CA. She married Ray Ebaugh on November 1, 1952, in Sacramento, and to that union two sons were born.

Betty grew up and graduated from high school in Sacramento. She and Ray moved back to Iowa where she was a homemaker most of her life while remaining very active. She was a member of the Clear Lake VFW Auxiliary and enjoyed golfing, bowling, and playing BINGO. She also liked traveling with friends to Las Vegas, but most of all, loved spending time with her family and grandchildren.

Betty is survived by her husband Ray Ebaugh, Clear Lake; two sons, Jeffery Ebaugh and Mark (Beth) Ebaugh, both of Clear Lake; two grandchildren, Allie (Brian) Janssen of Titonka and Drew Ebaugh of Port Orange, FL; a great-grandson, Oliver Janssen; two siblings, Geri Green of Sacramento and Bob (Fran) Ahart of California; and several nieces and nephews including, Sharon (Gordon) Myers and David (Carol) DeBell, both of Clear Lake.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a daughter-in-law, Jane Ebaugh; brother-in-law, Boyd Green; and Ray's siblings and their spouses.

Betty's family would like to express sincere appreciation for the care she received from MercyOne North Iowa Hospice
