

David L. Cobb Sr.

August 27, 1945 - December 21, 2020

David L. Cobb Sr. passed away Monday, December 21, 2020 at MercyOne North Iowa Medical Center in Mason City, IA.

A private family celebration of his life will be held at Hogan-Bremer-Moore Colonial Chapel on Tuesday, December 29, 2020.

David Lloyd Cobb Sr. was born August 27, 1945, the son of Dickerson and Edith V. (Anderson) Cobb. Growing up in Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota, David began working at a young age. He worked for Water Tower Paint and Repair, Pittsburgh Des Moines Steel, on the farm in Manly, and retired from IMI Cornelius. For many years David shod horses in the North Iowa and Southern Minnesota areas.

David was a hard working man who rarely gave himself enough time to sit down. He enjoyed time outside, whether it was hunting, fishing, or playing with the kids and grandchildren. From early on, horses were a staple in his life. David showed and raised horses for numerous years. He found great pride in caring and preparing for shows which led to his desire to go to horse shoeing school. David's family was his world and he was his grandchildren's biggest fan. David could be quite the jokester, even if everyone else didn't get the joke.

Those left to honor his memory are his wife of 56 years, Judy; his children, David Jr. (Lisa) Cobb of Rockwell, Donna (Scott) Asche of Mason City, and Don (Nikki) Cobb of Plymouth; grandchildren, Kendall, Amber, Andrew, David, Cooper, and Cameron; many beloved great-grandchildren; siblings, Fred Cobb, Richard Cobb, Paul Cobb, Janice Peterson, Viva Nelson; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents and siblings, Walt Cobb and Tommy Cobb.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the family. I had Dave for my farrier for a lot of years, He could come up with the funniest things, that just left you puzzled. He was always telling me my horse was too fat, but if you ever seen his, they looked just as fat as mine. He never believed in global warming, so you never got on that subject. I can remember him telling us he used Absorbine Jr. for horses, on himself for his arthritic hands, I would just shake my head. Rest in peace Dave

“ Dave did my horseshoeing for many years. He always amazed me with his skill and determination with horses. I enjoyed his humor, sometimes I had to think a moment about it, but I did get it. Horses and Dave are what come to my mind. I think of him often when I look at the two I still have and wonder about him. Sorry for the families loss, my condolences to everyone. RIP Dave
