“ Charles A. Bagur sent a virtual gift in memory of Kim Martin

“ Just a few thoughts about my Friend (Brother) Kim.
Kim and I met in 3rd grade at the Hoover School.
We hit it off right from day one.
Throughout the years, We Played sports together, Scooped the Loop, Fished, Hunted, Etc.
I taught Kim to downhill ski, we had many adventures.
I told Kim there was a girl (Kathy) that I wanted to introduce him to.
Kim and Kathy met, Fell in Love, got married.
I was Honored to be his Best Man.
I admired Kim for Always putting one foot in front of the other and continue to push forward during the difficult times.
Kim was a man of his word.
If he said he would be there, help, etc- he was.
Kim was quite the jokester.
He loved to visit.
He would and did talk to everyone.
I will miss our chats while sitting back drinking a coffee or a beer.
Every year kim called me on my birthday, 5 days later I would call him on his.
I Will Miss Him Tremendously.
Love You Kim (My Brother)

“ Kim lived where I did, so we became friends. He always made you laugh with his quick comebacks. He would do anything for anybody and always there to help. He will be missed by many. R.I.P Kim.
