Kim's pride and joy was her family. She cherished being able to watch Andrew grow into a wonderful man and seeing him and Megan raise a beautiful family with Vincent and William. She called her friends her extended family and looked forward to coffee time with them. She enjoyed sewing, knitting, crocheting, reading and completing jigsaw puzzles. She also loved traveling with her family and friends. Kim said she was born in the wrong era, as she loved and thoroughly enjoyed 50's-60's music.

Kim is survived by her husband, Randy Young of Clear Lake; son, Andrew (Megan) Young of Clear Lake; two grandsons, Vincent and William; siblings, Bruce Wilkinson of Mason City and Linda (Andy) Waldo of Winona, MN; and nieces, nephews and extended relatives.

“ I will always remember Kim with a BIG smile on her face and a one-of-a-kind, put you in an instant good mood laugh to follow. She was the perfect mix of smiles and a pinch of sass to keep you on your toes! She was always there for her friends and family. Thanks for all the fun camping memories and fun times at my Uncle Paul and Aunt Terry's house. You will be remembered always, Kim. <3

“ Kim was a kind and beautiful person. She always had room for you in her heart and in her home. The angels are lucky to have her among them.

“ I love the way that Kim was always a matter of a fact. Whatever you were talking about she had an opinion and she stated it with no excuses. Not many people can do that. I laughed with her often and will miss that.

“ I am so saddened for the entire Young family...and as others said previously, that includes the many friends that Kim treated like family. She was so talented, so fiery, and always ready for a good time. What a loss for so many, and certainly for Randy and Andy. She certainly put up a good fight for such a long time, I'm sure there must be some comfort in knowing she has eternal peace. My heart is with you, Randy.
