“ A lot to take in when someone is taken from us too soon...thinking of all of you during this sad time. Hold on to those happy memories, that is where our loved ones live on, inside our heart....I remember Linda having great respect and love for Jesus and I believe she is at peace & with her creator now. Some of the things I will remember and cherish about Linda; her quick wit, great sense of humor even during hard times, her willingness to help her friends in times of need, and her love for her children, grandchildren and family, her stories about her kids, that sarcastic humor that I love so much, seeing things -even bad things from a different view, telling things "like it is" to try and help someone, her love and reverence for God, her love of animals especially her pups. A caring loving person. She will be missed ! Love ya ! Mel, Keith, & Evan Harrison
