“ Lyle and me were really tight for many years. I can't think of a better friend than Lyle he was always there for me. Then as life sometimes does. We went our separate ways, and didn't see each other as often as I would have liked to. Lyle you will be missed brother I love you. And always will. Dave VanHorn.

“ Lyle and his parents, Harvey and Eleanor, lived across the road from Dave and me when we were first married. Dave and Harvey had grown up on those farms, across the road from one another, and their families were close. As a new bride on the farm, I enjoyed walking over to get eggs from Eleanor, and visiting with her and getting to know 11-year-old Lyle. I enjoyed that friendly and funny kid. Lyle was one of my first Clear Lake friends. He would come over to my house after he got off the school bus, and we would work on his homework in my kitchen until Eleanor called him home for supper. Lyle was an active kid, who enjoyed working with his dad, Harvey, on the farm chores. I remember looking out my kitchen window and seeing Lyle drive by standing up on the tractor, because he was too short to reach the pedals if he sat down. His beagle, Skippy, ran behind.
