

Marilou Winter

October 8, 1928 - July 6, 2020

Marilou Winter, 91, of Mason City, IA passed away Monday, July 06, 2020 at Good Shepherd Health Center.

A Celebration of her life will be held 10:30 a.m. Friday, July 10, 2020 at the Bohemian Cemetery in Plymouth, Iowa with Rev. Kent Mechler of Good Shepherd officiating. Please feel free to bring your lawn chair.

Marilou Winter was born October 8, 1928. In 1936 she was lovingly adopted by Orrin and Bessie May (Harmon) Peshak. Marilou grew up in Plymouth, attending Plymouth High School and graduating as Valedictorian. In 1949 she married the love of her life, Gerald R. Winter. The couple was blessed with four daughters, Geraldine, Christine, Susan and Rebecca. The family made their home in the North Iowa area, eventually returning to Mason City. Marilou worked at Good Shepherd for 10 years as a CNA.

She was a dedicated and loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and was blessed to become a great-great grandmother.

Those left to cherish her memory are her daughters, Geraldine Winter, Christine (Jay) Curran, Susan (Brad) Morud, and Rebecca Winter, all of Mason City; four grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; a great-great granddaughter; as well as numerous extended family members.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband Gerald; and a brother, Lester Peshak.

Cemetery

Bohemian Cemetery

Plymouth, IA,

Events

JUL Graveside Service 10:30AM

10

Bohemian Cemetery

Plymouth, IA, US

Comments

“ I knew Marilou from the time when she cared for my kids while I worked. She loved them both as her own. Such a kind & caring person. I wish I would have stayed more in touch with her. She is at peace now with Gerald. My deepest condolences to her family. She will be truly missed. Heaven gained another Angel

Donna Torkelson - July 08, 2020 at 11:06 AM